UPDATED INFORMATION

Date: / / 0835 HRS Lt. Slawson/Hom mdh/SHB

At approximately 10:30 pm on Friday (07/23/2010) police officers from the Bell Gardens Police Department received information there was a person with a gun, in a vehicle, driving around the area. Officers saw the vehicle and as they were attempting to make a traffic stop, in the 6300 block of Home Avenue, Bell, when one of the passengers, who was armed with a rifle, got out of the vehicle. Officers ordered the suspect to drop the weapon, but he instead turned and faced the officers with the rifle pointed at them. At that time an officer-involved shooting occurred. The wounded suspect was transported to a local hospital where he is in critical, but stable condition. No officers were injured. The driver of the vehicle and two other passengers were taken into custody without further incident.

There is no more information available at this time.
